CEO – Viken AT Market

The Board of Directors of Viken AT Market AS has appointed Håkon H. Myhra as the new CEO of the company from January 1st 2019. Håkon H. Myhra will replace Anders R. Øynes who has been acting as CEO since the startup in 2016.

Myhra comes from the position as Key Account Manager in Viken AT Market, and has played an important role in developing the company. The company enters into a new operating phase where the change of management is a natural step moving forward, says Anders R. Øynes.

We are pleased to welcome Håkon H. Myhra as the new CEO of Viken AT Market says Olav Breivik, Chairman of the Board.

About Viken AT Market

Viken AT Market AS is a trading company for roundwood and woodchips mainly for exports. The company is owned 50/50 by two of the leading forest cooperatives in Norway, Viken Skog and AT Skog. Viken AT Market has taken a strong position in the wood trading market, and is a major supplier to forest industries in Scandinavia, Baltics and Northern Europe.
